

Open Wide the Doors

Southwest Liturgical Conference Study Week

January 13-16, 2016, San Antonio, Texas

Announcing a new Art & Architecture Track

in partnership with the

Association of Consultants for Liturgical Space

The initial offerings for this track include:

* A Parish Building Block Session:

*Part 1 Presented by Greg Davis, AIA and Chad Abell, AIA. *Part 2 Presented by Jim Hundt, RA.

* Case Study: To Build with Living Stones, a successful church building project. Presented by Most Reverend Daniel E. Garcia, Auxiliary Bishop, Diocese of Austin, Ken Griesemer, Liturgical Design Consultant, James Heck, architect and John Cooke, building committee co-chair.

* Building as Catechesis Presented by Dr. Johan van Parys.

* Art in the Church Presented by moderator Carol Frenning and a panel of ACLS artists.

* Case Studies: Successful design for multicultural congregations. Presented by Gilbert Sunghera, SJ.

* Environment and Liturgical Year - Speaker TBD

*Pecha Kucha Sessions

SWLC 2016

Southwest Liturgical Conference Study Week

Hilton Palacio del Rio Hotel

Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center

For more information visit SWLC.org

&

ACLS

Association of Consultants for Liturgical Space

liturgical-consultants.org

Association of Consultants for Liturgical Space

Tuesday January 12th, 2016

Pre Conference Tour – Sponsored by Association of Consultants for Liturgical Space

Tour Cost - $35.00

Join us on a tour of four churches in San Antonio that have helped shape the worship community in this vibrant area of Texas.

On this tour you will see several recently constructed churches. They will include:

1. St. Anthony Mary Claret – San Antonio, Texas
2. St. Peter the Apostle – Boerne, Texas
3. St. Francis of Assisi – San Antonio, Texas
4. St. Mark the Evangelist – San Antonio, Texas

The tour will leave from the Hilton Hotel at 9 a.m. and return to the hotel at 4 p.m.

Cost will include all transportation and a boxed lunch. Come and join ACLS members, there is limited seating so please sign up early!

See you on board!

